

2027 NCAGT Business Supporting Gifted Education Award

The NCAGT Business Supporting Gifted Education Award is presented annually to a business or civic organization that has worked with teachers, students, schools, school districts and/or other education entities within North Carolina to support gifted education. Eligible businesses or civic organizations include those who support the mission of NCAGT, cultivate strong and sustained partnerships with schools, advocate on behalf of gifted education, and/or provide resources and support to teachers serving gifted students. Recipients will receive a plaque. Past recipients can be nominated after two years.

NCAGT initiated the NCAGT Business Supporting Gifted Education Award in an effort to recognize businesses that...

- recognize, value, and support gifted students
- partner with schools to positively impact the achievement of gifted students
- advocate to build and sustain awareness of gifted education
- provide resources to support teachers who serve gifted students

Guidelines: All nominations should include a narrative detailing how the nominee has worked with teachers, students, parents, schools, school districts, and/or other education entities to support gifted education in North Carolina.
